DISCUSSION	Information literacy; Budget update
DISCUSSION	Chris Michaelides introduced a new idea to the committee. Embedding or including information literacy in courses across the University as a way to encourage collaboration between the reference librarians and faculty and as a way to incorporate information literacy into the student's curriculum. Overall this idea was well received by the committee. Several members offered possible applications within their specific disciplines and stated their intention to explore the initiative further. Dean Smith's report included mention of the new copyright regulations for colleges and universities that participate in federal student aid programs. The library budget was hit relatively hard last year but cuts have been lighter for this semester. The cost for Louis network doubled but will be covered.
