|--|---|
| Presenter: | J. Heflin |
| Action: | Add new course ENGL 5121 (The Literature of the Bible) |
| Proposed Description: | |
| ENGL 5121 - The Literature of the Bible (3.Cr.) The Literature of the Bible is an upper level class designed for undergraduate English majors, graduate students in English and other interested parties. In this class, we will study selected books of the Bible in terms of their formal qualities-- themes and motifs, poetic and narrative techniques, and genres. Also we will touch on various issues related to literary study of the Bible: the historical contexts in which Biblical texts were written, the way the texts of the Bible have been composed, compiled, edited, and translated over the years, and the influence of the Bible on literature and culture. Finally, we will occasionally explore non-formalist critical approaches to the Bible—i.e. psychoanalytic approaches to bible | |

Graduate Courses

Note: To receive graduate credit for a 4000-level course designated "For Undergraduate and Graduates," a student must be in graduate admission status at the time credit is earned in the course. Credit earned in undergraduate admission status cannot be changed to graduate credit.

Proposed Degree Plan:

Program Admission

In addition to the university requirements for admission to the Graduate School, all applicants for regular admission to the Master of Arts in History degree program must meet the following criteria:

A minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 from a regionally accredited university.

Applicants who fail to meet the above standards may be admitted on conditional status as recommended by the Graduate History Admission and Curriculum Committee in concert with the Dean of the Graduate School.

Program Requirements

At the time of admission, provide a writing sample such as a book review, honors' thesis or research paper no longer than 10 pages, double-spaced excluding bibliography to the History Graduate Coordinator.

Undergraduate requirements are 18 semester hours of social sciences and/or humanities, with at least half of those being from history

Basic core requirement for the Master of Arts in History is

HIST 5030 Research Methods

Additional requirements include:

six semester hours of HIST 5099 Thesis and 21 semester hours of history electives and for a total of 30 semester hours.

Non Thesis and ULM Online students are required to take HIST 5030 Research Methods and 27 semester hours of history electives for a total of 30 semester hours.

Addendum:

1. Correction to item #12 (change in Construction Management) from the February 2021 meeting:
In the senior year the "AVIA/MGMT/MKTG/ENTR/FINA/RMIN Elective 3cr." should be
"MGMT course 3cr."
This changes this option to a management only elective.
