

Ability of Completers of Advanced Programs to be hired in Education positions for which they have been prepared:

MEd Educational Leadership

Graduates of the program are hired as principals, assistant principal, superintendents, curriculum coordinators, curriculum specialists, and other leadership roles in education. Graduates serving in these capacities meet critical workforce needs and provide a tremendous benefit to their communities and state.

MEd Educational Technology Leadership

Graduates of this program go on to work as curriculum specialists, learning applications designers, distance learning directors, and educational software consultants. Graduates serving in these capacities meet critical workforce needs and provide a tremendous benefit to their communities and state.

MEd Curriculum & Instruction

Graduates of the program are hired as Reading Specialists, Educational Diagnosticians, Special Educators, Curriculum Coordinators, Early Interventionists, Gifted Education Teachers, and Transition Specialists. Graduates serving in these capacities meet critical workforce needs and provide a tremendous benefit to their communities and state.