

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA MONROE

The ULM eTeach Scholarship is available to currently active certified teachers enrolled in a ULM Teacher Certification Program paying the full tuition rate for graduate courses. Students enrolled in M.Ed. and Ed.D. programs are not eligible for the eTeach Scholarship. This $200 scholarship is valid for the requested semester only and carries no obligation or promise of renewal.

To be considered for the eTeach Scholarship, complete the form below and submit it to soegraduate@ulm.edu by the final date of registration for the requested semester.

Applicant Name:

Campus Wide ID #:

Scholarship Term (check one): Fall Spring Summer 1 Summer II Year:

Certification Number of Applicant:

School name:

School phone:

Your position:

Verification by School Principal/Director

I verify that the applicant submitting this form is currently active at the above-mentioned school in the position indicated.

Principal/Director name:

Principal/Director signature:

Terms and Conditions:

- The scholarship is valid only for currently active certified teachers taking one or more online courses at full-tuition rate as graduate students through ULM. (Book Studies and other discounted professional development programs do not qualify.)
- This offer is dependent upon verification of your current employment and valid teacher certification. If for any reason your teacher certification and employment cannot be verified by the above-mentioned deadline, you will be notified and the scholarship will not be granted.
- This offer is valid for the specific dates and must be reapplied for each semester.
- This offer is conditional; if budgetary constraints require modification, you will be notified prior to or within the semester in which the change will become effective.

I have read and will comply with the terms and conditions of this offer.

Applicant signature:

Date: