

ULM HONORS PROGRAM

The ULM Honors Program is a small community of scholars within the larger University seeking to challenge themselves with new ideas and work with other similarly motivated students. The program is open to all students of any major. Honor students work closely with an impressive collection of Honors Faculty and have a 100% admissions rate into graduate and professional schools.

For more information regarding the Honors Program, visit:

ulm.edu/honors

For more information regarding scholarships, visit:

ulm.edu/scholarships

Dr. Joshua Stockley
Program Director
stockley@ulm.edu

HONORS CURRICULUM

Honors students have an exclusive opportunity to take courses in art, literature, history, social science, political science, psychology, speech, and honors seminars from honors faculty and receive Honors Distinction within the College or the University.

HONORS INCENTIVES

- Priority Registration
- Study Abroad Scholarships
- Honors Scholarships
- Private Study Lounge
- Smaller Classes
- Honors Housing
- Recognition at Graduation
- Publication Opportunities

SCHOLARSHIPS

ULM Office of Scholarships

ULM designates money each year for Honors Scholarships and Study Abroad opportunities. After the first semester in the Honors Program, all Honor students may apply for these awards.

.....

Study Abroad

ULM Honors Students have studied all over the world. Recent trips abroad include:

Belgium	Morocco
Costa Rica	Peru
England	Spain
France	Greece
South Korea

Foundation Awards

Admitted students are encouraged to apply for awards through the ULM Foundation. Applications are open during the month of February.

APPLY TODAY

Start your application by visiting ulm.edu/honors/apply

Application packets are accepted anytime; however, to receive full consideration, incoming students should apply by January 31.