

Ed.D. CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION
Ed.D. in Educational Leadership

The internship experience in the LEC doctoral program is 300 > clock hours. Two hundred hours is spent at the internship placement > site, 50 hours of service initiatives, and 50 hours of class(seminar).
> The internship is a supervised, on-site set of activities completed > external to the candidate's regular, compensated professional duties.
> The experience is designed to enable the practitioner-scholar to > demonstrate and apply knowledge bases and dispositions acquired in > other program components in practical settings which reflect changing > demographics of schools and promote comparison of school experiences.
> The student has an on-site mentor/supervisor and a faculty supervisor.
> The internship may be pursued in one or two terms. Dr. Bob N. Cage,
> Program Director
>
>

The course numbers for the internship in the LEC program is LECI
776 which is 3 semester hours and is taught each term at Grambling
State University on Wednesday evenings. The companion course is LECI 777 which is offered on each of the three campuses each term for 3 semester hours and must be taken in conjunction with the 776 course.
Thus the internship is a six semester hour enrollment. Bob Cage

--

---

Dr. Bob Cage
College of Education and Human Development University of Louisiana at Monroe
(318) 342-1288
FAX (318) 342-3131
Email cage@ulm.edu